

Kansas City Classic Solo & Ensemble Judges

Lauren Argo

Lauren was awarded the prestigious Dancer of the Year Award for Dance America Competitions and Dance Olympus Conventions, as well as the Best Emotional Execution Award in Lyrical Dance. She also won the Overall Talent Award when she was a contestant in the Miss Missouri Pageant. She was on the competitive dance team at William Jewell College, which was ranked in the top three regionally and the top ten nationally in the Open Division category for Universal Dance Association. Lauren was a member of Toby Keith's Whiskey Girl Dance and Promotional Team. She performed in televised events and assisted in the choreography of corporate events for Harrah's Entertainment. She danced with country music artists Toby Keith and Jack Ingram and in front of thousands of fans on the Verizon Wireless Amphitheater stage and at the Sprint Center.

Cassie Eisenmann

Cassie was a member of the highly successful Kansas City Brigade Girls AFL dance team for two seasons. She had the opportunity to choreograph sideline routines and perform at every home game at the Sprint Center in Kansas City. Cassie also danced at numerous appearances for the Brigade Girls including Race for the Cure, Crawl for Cancer and at army bases around the country, including America's number one powerhouse: Fort Campbell in Kentucky. Cassie has performed in front of thousands at the Red, White and Boom Concert at Capitol Federal Park, at the Kansas City Royals home opener at the new Kauffman stadium, and at the Live! block in the Kansas City Power and Light District. She has danced with national country artist Toby Keith during a live performance at the Sprint Center. She was a member of the Whiskey Girls, performing as a dancer and assisting with choreography.

Fallon Gardner

Fallon was a four year member of the nationally ranked Northwest Missouri State University Bearcat Steppers. She was co-captain, and led her team to a top ten placement in jazz at the UDA National Collegiate Competition in Florida. While she was a Bearcat Stepper, she and her team received numerous awards at camps and competitions including National Dance Alliance, United Spirit Association, and Universal Dance Association, where Fallon also received a recommendation to become a staff member. She choreographed and performed many of the Bearcat Steppers' performances, including the Division II National Championship football game in Florence, Alabama. Fallon was a dancer with Toby Keith's Whiskey Girls and assisted the director with choreography, public relations, and social media.

Kayla Kernel

Kayla was a member of the nationally ranked Bearcat Steppers for four years, and co-captain for one year. She has participated and excelled in competitive dance as a performer, and has also choreographed dance team performances and competition material for the high school and collegiate level, including several pieces for the Miller Marley Competition Team. Kayla was a member of the Kansas City Chiefs Cheerleaders, performing in front of thousands at every home game at Arrowhead Stadium, representing the squad at promotional events, and appearing in their top selling calendar. She was also a member of the AFL's Kansas City Command Dancers. As a Whiskey Girl, she danced with country music artist Toby Keith and assisted with choreography.

Natalie Singletary

Natalie has extensive training in ballet, tap, jazz, and modern. She has been in numerous theater productions, was a member of Ibsen Ballet Company for four years, and danced with the William Jewell College Dance Team. Natalie was a charter member of the Whiskey Girl Dance and Promotional Team, and holds the distinction of performing in every one of their appearances, promotions, and performances. She was assistant choreographer for their televised events, which won local awards, and for their concert appearances at Verizon Wireless Amphitheater, the Sprint Center, and the Hearn Center. Natalie has danced at Country Radio Seminar in Nashville, corporate events for Harrah's Entertainment, and has appeared as a dancer on the AT&T Blue Room website. She has performed with national country music artists Toby Keith, Emerson Drive, Jack Ingram and the LoCash Cowboys.
